TWO BOOKS EVERY BOOK COLLECTOR NEEDS!

COLLECTIBLE BOOKS: Some New Paths

Ed. by Jean Peters. 1979. c. 300 pp. 6 x 9.

ISBN 0-8352-1154-1. $16.95

In a revolutionary departure from traditional book collecting, twelve well-known collectors and bookmen challenge the long-accepted view that "rare" books are the collector's only quarry. Writing from their own experience, they lead the collector into a world of collectible books that until now has been left largely unexplored and prove that it is still possible to find an abundance of books to collect and at prices that a collector of modest means can afford.

In nine enlightening chapters containing more than 40 illustrations, plus two introductory essays, they relate their experiences in building their collections and suggest numerous ways in which collectors can pursue their own interests and develop challenging and significant collections.

BOOK COLLECTING: A Modern Guide

Ed. by Jean Peters. 1977. 288 pp. ill. 6 x 9.

ISBN 0-8352-0985-7. LC 77-8785. $17.50

Scores of questions on the subject are intelligently answered by twelve noted book collectors, curators and scholars in lucid, informative essays especially written for this book.

Beginning collectors and more advanced practitioners as well as experienced librarians and booksellers will learn how to care for a collection of books and manuscripts . . . how to avoid the pitfalls of buying at auction . . . how to detect fakes . . . how to cut the cost of getting a collection appraised . . . and much more.

D. Steven Corey said, in Book Club of California Quarterly News-Letter, "the book is handsome, well-written and thorough and is recommended reading for both the beginning and the more advanced book collector."

"A standard work for libraries and for collectors."—Paul S. Koda, in Library Journal.

THE WEST COAST'S OLDEST & LARGEST BOOK AUCTION HOUSE

Monthly sale of Fine & Rare Books, Important First Editions, Maps, Manuscripts, Prints & Graphics, 19th & 20th Century original Photographs, Modern Literature, Illustrated Books, Art & Reference, Fine Bindings, Fine Press Books, California & the American West, European & English literature & history from the 15th Century, etc.

We accept consignments from Collectors, Booksellers, & Libraries of valuable Literary Properties for sale at public auction. Terms & open sales dates on application. We also make appraisals for Estate or insurance purposes.

During the 1979-80 auction season our twelve sales alternated between Los Angeles & San Francisco. Sales at Los Angeles were held in the auditorium of The Woman's Club of Hollywood, with exhibit of materials provided in San Francisco as well as Los Angeles. The season was once again our most successful to date, grossing approximately $500,000, representing a 25% increase over last year. Major sales included our Prints & Graphics sale, dispersal of the rare books from the Immaculate Heart College Library, our Photographica 6, the Illustrated books sale in June, and the first in a series of sales of duplicates & out-of-field materials from the Pacific Center for Western Studies at Stockton. Most exciting feature of the Immaculate Heart College Library rare books was sale of a fine set of the Complutensian Polygot Bible, complete in 6 volumes & published in Spain 1514-1517. Its selling price of $40,000 exceeded our top estimate by $10,000 and was the largest amount ever realized by us for a single item. Our prices realized have been listed in American Book Prices Current since 1958.

FOREWORD

This priced Index to American Book Prices Current follows the pattern of the previous indexes - but with important differences which should make this Index more useful and more enjoyable to use than its predecessors. For the first time in any Index volume we have included all place names in imprints (earlier Index volumes indicated place of publication only for books printed in countries other than Great Britain and the United States). Moreover, we have included formats and, in a goodly number of instances, both edition and uniform titles. The Autograph and Manuscript section has been given a new look which we think makes it easily readable for the first time.

The arrangement of the ABPC 1975-1979 Index is that of the annual volumes 82 through 85, covering the four years from September 1975 through August 1979. The Index is divided into two parts: Part I, Autographs & Manuscripts, includes original illustrations for printed books, documents, letters, typescripts, corrected proofs, signed photographs, and signatures, as well as manuscripts. Part II, Books, also includes broadsides, single-sheet printings, printed maps & charts and uncorrected proof copies.

AUTOGRAPHS & MANUSCRIPTS (Part I of the Index) are arranged in a single alphabet by author, by title, or by subject (e.g., Bible Manuscripts, Latin; Chronicles; Horae B.M.V.; New Jersey). Autograph manuscripts and typescripts are arranged alphabetically under each heading. Letters, documents, and similar items are listed chronologically under the author. Preceding each price is the year of the volume (not the volume number) of ABPC in which the full entry will be found, with the abbreviated form (76) for 1976, (77) for 1977, and so on. Each letter or document now is listed to begin a separate line, with more information being given on specialized or high priced items.

BOOKS (Part II of the Index) are arranged alphabetically by author whenever possible, by title when the author's name is not readily available, or by Private Press Club, printer, or publisher headings if such are the associations which attract the collector. In general, illustrated books are listed under the author of the text. A few subject headings have also been used, such as England, Maps & Charts, Hebrew Books, and Miniature Books, or those for individual U.S. states or cities. There are cross-references to Club or Press books, to books bound together (which in this Index we have been careful to describe very fully indeed), and to books by more than one author.

Main entries under each author listing are identified by a one-em dash. Sub-entries (later states or issues, etc.) begin on separate lines without the dash. A few headings, such as the Bible listings and those for the Rubaiyat and The Compleat Angler, are arranged chronologically for the user's convenience.

Following the title of each work is the year of publication, when known; then, edition, issue or state information when pertinent; then, the format for books published before 1901; and then, in parenthesis, the year of the volume of ABPC in which the entry will be found, followed by price or prices realized, with dollar sales listed first, then British pounds, and then other currencies in alphabetical order, each in ascending order within the year concerned when there were multiple sales (see below for currency equivalents). The annual volumes are referred to by year (rather than volume number), with the abbreviated form (76) for 1976, (77) for 1977, and so on.

Incunabula are listed with place of printing and printer (when known) immediately following the title. The Goff number or other pertinent reference is included. Prices out of the ordinary often have immediately preceding them a clue to the reason for the variation, such as "Inscr" (inscribed by author) or "Goodwin copy." Other information pertaining to condition, limitation, and extra-illustration is given when necessary to explain price variations. Errors and blunders found in the annual volumes have been corrected in this Index without comment.

Currency equivalents are as follows:

POUND STERLING: 1975-76, $1.71 to $2.10; 1976-77, $1.57 to $1.74; 1977-78, $1.74 to $1.96; 1978-79, $1.94 to $2.21.

FRENCH FRANC: 1975-76, 4.38 to 4.94 to the American Dollar; 1976-77, 4.80 to 5.00; 1977-78, 4.34 to 4.85; 1978-79, 4.23 to 4.44
HONG KONG DOLLAR: 1977-78, 4.75 to 4.59
ITALIAN LIRA: 1975-76, 669 to 874 to the American Dollar; 1976-77, 845 to 888; 1977-78, 832 to 882
SOUTH AFRICAN RAND: 1976-77, $1.15; 1977-78, $1.15; 1978-79, $1.15
SWISS FRANC: 1975-76, 2.44 to 2.71 to the American Dollar; 1978-79, 1.54 to 1.72

Please note that these figures are meant as somewhat simplified approximations of the currency fluctuations throughout the period, designed to give our readers a good idea of these fluctuations, not an absolutely precise bank rate.

The following buyers surcharges should also be noted: In Holland 16% and 10 cents per item; France, 16% up to F6,000, 11.5 % up to F20,000, 10% above F20,000; in England 10% (not at Phillips in 1975-76); in Switzerland 14% with a rebate of 6% to registered wholesalers under Swiss Sales Tax Law and to buyers residing outside Switzerland who present a stamped Swiss Export Declaration. In 1977, Christie's in America established a 10% surcharge. In 1978, Hamilton followed suit; and in 1979, Parke Bernet began the year with the surcharge, with California Book following along in April.

Among the people responsible for the good things in this book are Susan Hays, Candace Kuhta, Jane Mallison, John Nishi, Laura Roe, Meg Stevens, and Betsy Syrett. From Inforonics, we most want to thank Joe Dupré, Kurt Lanza, Gloria Nilsson and — always and ever — Bill King. Larry Buckland, whom we grudgingly agreed to see for ten minutes some two-and-a-half years ago, has changed our lives and our way of doing things. Gerard Mayers and Audrey Smith of Columbia University Press win our grateful thanks all over again every year, as does Marjorie Auber of Maple-Vail. Finally, our thanks to Shiver Mountain Press for setting our front matter.

The ABPC 1975-1979 Index functions independently as a quick survey of prices and price fluctuations during the period and as a census of books and manuscripts sold. In many instances it will enable the book-knowing person to gain required information as to price, condition, and many other factors without having to refer to the annual volumes. Its chief value is, however, as a guide to the many thousands of books and manuscripts which are described in the annual volumes. For full information as to the date and place of sale, descriptions of bindings and defects and as to the contents of some autographs and manuscripts, the user should consult the full listings in the annual volumes.
